

EXPERT LIST ON ALASKA MINING ISSUES

Alaska Native Community

Colleen Koenig
Native Village of Kivalina
Tel. (907) 645-2153
Email cekoenig@maniilaq.org
Expertise: impacts of Red Dog mine on the local native community

Academia

Lawrence K. Duffy, Ph.D.
Institute of Arctic Biology and Department of Chemistry and Biochemistry
University of Alaska at Fairbanks
Fairbanks, Alaska
Tel. (907) 474-7525
Expertise: biological effects of mining

Thomas Power, Ph.D.
Professor of Economics
University of Montana
Missoula, Montana
Tel. (406) 243-4586
Email Tom.Power@mso.umt.edu
Expertise: natural resources economics, economic contributions of the Alaska mining industry

Glenn Miller, Ph.D.
Professor of Chemistry
Department of Environmental and
Resource Sciences
University of Nevada
Reno, Nevada
Tel. (702) 784-4108
Email gcmiller@scs.unr.edu
Expertise: environmental chemistry, extensive experience with acid mine drainage, cyanide, pit water and water quality issues

Reclamation Bonding Standards

Jim Kuipers, P.E.
Center for Science in Public
Participation
Butte, Montana
Tel. (406) 782-3441
Email jkuipers@csp2.org

Expertise: metal mine processing methodology, reclamation, mine feasibility and design

Mining (General) in Alaska

David Chambers, Ph.D.
Center for Science in Public
Participation
Bozeman, Montana
Tel. (406) 585-9854
Email dchambers@csp2.org
Expertise: mining methodology, mining impacts, mining in Alaska

Government

Sharman Stambaugh
Alaska Department of Environmental Conservation
Anchorage, Alaska
Tel. (907) 269-7565
Expertise: State mining regulations

Shelly Jacobson
Bureau of Land Management, Northern Field Office
Fairbanks, Alaska
Tel. (907) 474-2200
Expertise: Federal 3809 regulations, placer mining

Deb Rudis
US Fish and Wildlife Service
Juneau, Alaska
Tel. (907) 586-7648
E-mail Deborah_Rudis@mail.fws.gov
Expertise: mining impacts on Alaska marine organisms

Ben Kirkpatrick
Habitat Biologist
Alaska Department of Fish and Game
Tel. (907) 465-4288
Email
ben_kirkpatrick@fishgame.state.ak.us
Expertise: fisheries impacts from mining

Bill Riley
Office of Water Mining Coordinator

EPA Region 10
Seattle, Washington
Tel. (206) 553-1412
E-mail riley.william@epamail.epa.gov
Expertise: federal mining and water policy

Theresa Michelsen
Consultant
Tel. (425) 485-4511
Cell (425) 260-6811
Expertise: sediment toxicology

John E. Gray, Ph.D.
U.S. Geological Survey
P.O. Box 25046, MS 973
Denver, CO 80225
Tel. (303) 236-2446
Email jgray@usgs.gov
Expertise: mineral deposits in Alaska, impacts of abandoned mines, impacts of mercury in the environment

Patty McGrath
EPA Region 10
Seattle, Washington
Tel. (206) 553-0979
E-mail
mcgrath.patricia@epamail.epa.gov
Expertise: NPDES mining permits in Alaska

Roseanne Lorenzana
EPA Region 10
Seattle, Washington
Tel. (206) 553-8002
Expertise: toxicology and human health

Steve Hoffman
EPA National Inspector
Tel. (703) 308-8413
Expertise: Alaska mine inspections

Sally Brough
EPA Region 10
Seattle, Washington
Tel. (206) 553-1072
Expertise: water quality standards

Others

Robert Reges
Attorney, formerly with the Alaska
Attorney General's office
Juneau, Alaska
Tel. (907) 789-0047
Expertise: air quality issues in Alaska